One of the winners of last year's Concours d'Elegance was Harold S. Crosby with his 1932 Packard sport phaeton. Mrs. Aime Michaud is seen presenting him with his trophy on the lawn in front of the Del Monte Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Aime Michaud have returned from a stay in Acapulco to host a reception for the judges at the Del Monte Lodge Saturday evening.

Later that evening the "Concours d' Elegance Roc" (black tie dinner dance) will be held at the Beach and Tennis Club, with a rock group called the "Hot Coffee" providing the dance music. Many will gather at the Club for cocktails before the gala dinner dance.

All proceeds from the Concours d'Elegance benefit the Community Hospital of the Monterey Peninsula. Auxiliary members will be on hand to sell tickets and posters.

Mr. Edward Carroll, one of America's foremost photographers will exhibit a group of portraits of well known people in the Del Monte Lodge Arcade on Saturday and Sunday.

Friday evening from 6-8 he will host a champagne preview for a group of local residents and visitors who will be attending the Concours d'Elegance.

Former Pine Cone Editor Don Craig Resigns From CHS

In his letter of resignation to the Carmel School Board last week, master teacher of Spanish at Carmel High School, said:

"My 28 years of teaching here have been happy ones and my greatest regret is that I must leave the students who, through the years, have been my pride and joy and hope for the future. There is not one whom I shall not remember with affection and respect.

"I thank you and your administrators past and present for your many kindnesses and I extend you my best wishes for the future."

He retired for health reasons.

The board did not accept the resignation, preferring to take this action later "in a more appropriate manner."

Craig, former Carmel city councilman and planning commissioner, wrote a history of planning in Carmel in the 50th anniversary of the Carmel Pine Cone.

Back in the 50's, he used to edit the paper during Easter and summer vacations, while Wilma Cook, former Pine Cone editor, was on vacation.

New Symphony Conductor

The Monterey County Symphony Association has announced the appointment of an outstanding conductor for the coming concert season. Association President James M. R. Glaser named Haymo Taeuber as the new conductor of the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra, and noted, "We received almost 100 applications for the position from as far away as New Zealand, Germany, Ecuador, and the Phillipines."

The new conductor has an impressive international background having been guest conductor with the Vienna Symphony Orchestra for 20 years, conductor for the Vienna City Opera for over 10 years, director of the world famous Vienna Boy's Choir from 1945 to 1949, and conductor for opera and concerts with the Austrian Broadcasting Corporation.

His career highlights include serving as artistic director and conductor of the Philharmonic State Orchestra in Ankara, Turkey, and the State Symphony Orchestra and Chorus Teheran in Iran. Guest appearances throughout Europe with such leading orchestras as the London Philharmonic, Orchestre Philharmonique de Bruxelles in Belgium and the Strasbourg Symphony in France have won him wide acclaim.

Since 1963 he has been the artistic director and conductor of the Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra, where he built this organization into a fine metropolitan orchestra.

In discussing his reasons for joining the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra, he said, "I am interested in developing musical organizations with high standards, and believe that the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra will offer this opportunity." Mr. Taeuber is developing the program for the 1968-69 concert series.

Marcia Custer Rider Wins Oles

As Ana Gabriela, part of the Spanish dancing troupe, Amparo and Cuadro Espanol, Marcia Kuster Rider, until recently of Carmel, charmed her audience at Sunset Theatre Friday evening, with her youth, grace and beauty.

Perhaps her loveliest number was a solo in a classical ballet with castenets in which she was dressed in brown velvet and beige lace which suggested the 17th Century.

The full house cheered the solo by Amparo to the music of Asturias by Albeniz. In this she wore a fascinating costume edged with green ruffles which trembled seductively as she moved. Her castenet work was particularly effective.

The male dancer of the troupe was Moreno, the grandson of the Al Segovias of Monterey. He danced with great authenticity and flair the difficult stamping rhythms of the Flamenco.

Some of the dances were accompanied by a young guitarist, Roberto Jose, who contributed greatly to the atmosphere of Spain.

The entire production which included delightful peasant dances in gay costumes as well as the traditional Flamenco, was directed and choreographed by Amparo.

The dance performance was a bonus concert by the Carmel Music Society at the end of one of its most successful seasons.

Circle Appointments

The Circle Theatre last week appointed Mrs. Harry Graham as President of the Board. She will take the place of Wilfred Scholefield.

Theatre Review

THE GRADUATE, interesting, if not completely compelling comedy.

GRAND PRIX . . . a beautiful film cinemagraphically speaking. Stars actually race at high speeds while filming this magnificent picture in 70 mm film. Full stereophonic sound adds to the impact.

GUESS WHO'S COMING FOR DINNER . . . A topical subject performed by an excellent cast. Sidney Poitier is the same character he always plays. It runs about 30 minutes long; but has received grand reviews.

TRAVELING SALESLADY . . . Phyllis Diller is up to her antics in this, a very funny film. She's calmer in movies than on TV.

GOOD, THE BAD AND THE UGLY . . . Nearly three hours of guns and gore with the Civil War thrown in.

ENVIRA MADIGAN . . . A young artistocrat deserts his regiment and runs away with a beautiful tight-rope walker.

A DANDY IN ASPIC . . . an English spy thriller with Laurence Harvey plays a Russian double agent.

GRAND SLAM . . . Edward G. Robinson masterminds a painstakingly planned diamond theft to be carried out in Rino at carnival time.

BLACKBEARD'S GHOST . . . Walt Disney has Peter Ustinov playing a cuddly pirate-ghost.

WILD IN THE STREETS . . . a teen idol runs for the presidency. Pretty girls and a kooky plot.

GAMES . . . a spooky film complete with a murder. You'll cringe and come near panic.

BLUE . . . an orphaned son of a Texas settler is raised in bandido style.

Her husband drives a car that cruises at 100 mph. This is it.

Surprised? You wouldn't be if you'd noticed the famed BMW medallion on the hood.

For this is the car that's designed to provide economical, well-mannered utility as it conveys a wife around town, and then to blaze down a country highway when her husband takes the wheel.

Which is why this new BMW is her husband's pride and joy. He drives for the pure sport of it, and he knows his BMW was built to combine maximum speed with maximum safety.

For example, BMW's unique, fully-independent suspension affords matchless roadability. The car takes ruts, potholes and unbanked curves in unshakeable stride. And it goes like the very wind. In fact, in Germany, where high-speed driving is a national sport, BMW leads the pack.

Because BMW is so safe, her husband doesn't worry when she takes it to town. Which is often, because she finds it handles like silk and is a breeze to park. Economical, too. Up to 30 miles to a gallon. To say nothing of its big tall windows, well-styled interior and commodious trunk.

So if you need a sensible sort of automobile, yet in your heart of hearts really want a thrilling road machine, take a good look at the new BMW. And don't let its practicality fool you. It may be a lamb with the ladies, but when you want action, you'll find there's a hellcat under the hood.

Miss Angie Machado Retires From MPC

So that she will have time to "study and travel," Miss Angie Machado of Carmel, head of the music department at Monterey Peninsula College, for many years, was granted emeritus status by the MPC board of trustees last week.

Miss Machado, for many years prominent in the musical life of the Peninsula, has also been instrumental, at MPC, in bringing some of the musical "greats" of the day to the college in the nine years in which she has been planning five or six free public concerts annually. As her last act of this sort this semester, she will complete plans for the college's fall chamber music series.

Speaking of her years of teaching at MPC as "most rewarding and wonderful — I enjoy this age level of students so much," she says she is grateful to the administration for allowing her, for the past three years, to give her piano final examinations for advanced students in her Carmel studio, "where we can afterwards relax and have a party." An advisor of the student International Relations Club, she has opened her home for residence to three successive students from Hongkong.

Recently elected president of the Monterey Peninsula Chamber Music Society, Miss Machado is a board member of the Monterey Peninsula Concert Association, was a board member of the Monterey County Symphony Society and from 1947 to 1962 was assistant choral conductor of the Carmel Bach Festival.

With her retirement, Miss Machado will complete 18 years of teaching in California schools, having also taught at Monterey High School, Carmel High School, the Carmel Adult School and at Santa Catalina School. During these years she has always also taken a few private piano and vocal students.

A native Californian, she earned her B.A. degree at San Jose State College, has had class piano training at the Diller-Quaile School of Music (N.Y.) and artist classes with Egon Petri and Alexander Libermann at Mills College.

Bach Festival Box Office Opens June 1

The Bach Festival Box Office opens in Carmel on June 1 at Room 3, Sunset Cultural Center, San Carlos Street between 8th and 9th Avenues. Box office hours 10 to 12 and 1 to 4 daily except Sunday.

1968 Bach Festival dates are July 19 (Friday) through July 28 (Sunday) with the second week-end performances a repeat of the first week end.

The series includes seven evening and two afternoon concerts at Sunset Theater, a night concert at Carmel Mission Basilica and twelve daytime recitals and lectures.

Outstanding features of the 31st Festival are the Mass in B Minor (complete), Bach's "Art of the Fugue" (orchestral version) the World Premiere of Le Carnaval des Precieuses — a concert of French music circa 1660, and the Baroque music of New Spain, the last presented at the nearly two hundred year old Carmel Mission Basilica.

For brochure and ticket information please write Carmel Bach Festival, Box 503, Carmel, California 93921 with self addressed envelope enclosed.

'Big Foot,' Where Are You?

Seen any abominable snowmen tromping through about our hills lately? If he didn't answer to "Hey, Mr. Snowman," then try Mr. Bigfoot, Mr. Sasquatch, or maybe Mrs. Yete . . . then quickly get in touch with Jim McClarin, 7244 Almond Avenue, Orangevale, California, after you contact the editor of the Pine Cone.

McClarin asked the Pine Cone last week for names of anyone in our area who is known to take an interest in "Bigfoot." He also asked us to inform him of any reports of such creatures seen here.

As you probably have read there have been movies and polaroid photographs taken of Bigfoot in Humbolt County in Northern California.

The legend of the abominable snowman began in the Himalayan region and during the early part of the 19th century reports sprang up of sightings in Eastern Canada, across that country and down the Coastal Range through California. Each description varied in reports of color, size and shape which led believers to assume that there are different breeds.

The ones in Devendorf Park do not count!

Douglas Camp Founder Dies

In 1928 she established the Douglas School in Pebble Beach. She was the wife of the late Ernest Douglas, who died in 1957.

A pioneer member of the American Camping Association, she was president of the Headmistress Association, forerunner organization of the Association of Independent Schools.

Mr. Cunningham is a graduate of the College of Emporia in Kansas and a former high school teacher of sociology and wrestling / football coach at Junction City High School in Kansas. Handwriting Class Slated

A Class in Italic handwriting will be conducted at All Saints' Day School, starting on Monday, June 17, and continuing for two weeks, to June 28.

The class will be held from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, Monday through Friday, in the School library. The Instructor, Mrs. Peter Farmer, says that no previous knowledge of special handwriting or script writing is necessary.

Public Hearings Set For June 26

Pacific Gas and Electric has apparently come up with a design for their substation at Junipero and 2nd which meets with the Planning Commission's wishes.

A public hearing has been set for June 26th and upon design approval would automatically grant a use permit for the substation.

The substation will have an 8'-7" wall constructed around the area which should cut noise as well as hide the ugly equipment. The building will be changed to follow the "mission style." Almost all of the wiring will be underground and the poles taken down, except for one to remain on the North corner.

Another public hearing will be set for the same date concerning the Ordinance requiring a use permit for building on a parcel of land having a slope of 30 degrees or more. This will include residential as well as commercial lots.

Summer Session Registration

Mail registration for summer session courses at Monterey Peninsula College will be accepted from Monday through June 7, Dr. Keith Merrill, summer session dean, has announced.

Registration forms are contained in brochures listing all courses to be offered, Dr. Merrill said. These may be obtained at MPC's administration building switchboard or be requested by telephone or mail.

New students planning to enroll in English, U.S. history, American government, psychology, philosophy, sociology or speech classes must demonstrate ability to undertake such course work by making satisfactory scores on the College Placement Test, or through evidence of previous successful college work submitted to the college counselor.

AN OPEN LETTER TO A DISCOURAGED YOUNGSTER

Dear Kid:

Today you came to me for a job. From the look of your shoulders as you walked out, I suspect you've been turned down before, and maybe you believe by now that kids out of high school can't find work.

But, I hired a teenager today. You saw him. He was the one with polished shoes and a necktie. What was so special about him? Not experience, neither of you had any. It was his attitude that put him on the payroll instead of you. Attitude, son. A-T-T-I-T-U-D-E. He wanted that job badly enough to shuck the leather jacket, get a haircut, and look in the phone book to find out what this company makes. He did his best to impress me. That's where he edged you out.

You see, Kid, people who hire people aren't "with" a lot of things. We know more about Bing than about Ringo, and we have Stone-Age ideas about who owes whom a living. Maybe that makes us prehistoric, but there's nothing wrong with the checks we sign.

Ever hear of "empathy"? It's the trick of seeing the other fellow's side of things. I couldn't have cared less that you're behind in your car payments. That's your problem and President Johnson's. What I needed was someone who'd go out in the plant, keep his eyes open, and work for me like he'd work for himself. If you have even the vaguest idea of what I'm trying to say, let it show the next time you ask for a job. You'll be head and shoulders over the rest.

You know, Kid, men have always had to get a job like you get a girl: Case the situation, wear a clean shirt, and try to appear reasonably willing. Maybe jobs aren't as plentiful right now, but a lot of us can remember when master craftsmen walked the streets. By comparison you don't know the meaning of "scarce."

You may not believe it, but all around you employers are looking for young men and women smart enough to go after a job in the old-fashioned way. When they find one they can't wait to unload some of their worries on him.

For both our sakes, get eager, will you?

"THE BOSS"
CLYDE YOUNG

Editor's Note: Last year Clyde N. Young ran this "open letter" in the Pine Cone and from the comments many were impressed with its message. This year with the permission of Mr. Young, we are pleased to re-run his letter hoping that its message reaches the graduating classes of all our schools.

Purse Snatchers In Carmel

Two ladies—one a resident, the other from Denver, Colorado—were victims of purse-snatching recently.

Regina Bailey, visiting Carmel and lodging at Coachman's Inn, was robbed of her purse in the parking lot, losing $30 plus important papers. Another blemish on the complexion of Carmel.

Mrs. M. B. Mitchell was walking down Monte Verde at about 6 p.m. when she was struck to the ground by a short young man and relieved of her purse. But, before he could get away she struggled with him until her purse opened and her coin purse fell away. The thief made off with only $2.00 . . . her coin purse had $20.

Symphony Features

Plans for the 1968-69 concert series have also been announced with an international array of artists scheduled to appear including the acclaimed Francesco Chamber Trio, the great cellist Gabor Rejto, harpist virtuoso Nicanor Zabaleta, and the brilliant Russian pianist Dimitri Bashkirov.

Season ticket applications are now available, with the renewal deadline set for June 1st. More information on the Monterey Peninsula Series of five concerts can be obtained at the Monterey County Symphony Association office located in Sunset Center, by writing Box 3851 in Carmel, or calling 624-4125.

'Alex' Robinson Chosen 1968 La Favorita

Miss Alexandra Robison, of Carmel, descendant of a family important to the history of the state as well as Monterey, was chosen by the Monterey History and Art Association to be La Favorita of the Merienda celebrating Monterey's 198th birthday next Saturday morning. The ceremony will take place in Memory Garden of the Old Pacific Building.

Another distinguished Carmelite, Mrs. John Francis Doud will serve as her Duenna. "Alex" will be attended by Miss Polly Campbell, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Gordon Campbell of Carmel, and Miss Kate Branson, daughter of Monterey County Supervisor Willard Branson and Mrs. Branson.

Alexandra is the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Shelburn Robison of Carmel.

Graduate of Santa Catalina School for Girls, Alexandra earned her degree at Santa Clara University with time out for a year at the University of Madrid, Spain. She returned to Madrid on a diplomatic scholarship from the Spanish government.

She is now a teacher of Spanish at Robert Louis Stevenson School while working on her master's degree at the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies.

Alexandra's sister, Robin, (Mrs. James Vaughan) of Alameda was La Favorita of the 1950 Meriena.

Back from Korea

James W. Jaggers, naval reservist of Carmel, who is engaged to be married to Pamela Otrich in July, returned Tuesday on the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Ranger after seven months at sea off the coast of Vietnam.

Local Musicians In Temple Concert

Gilbert Boyer, Carmel pianist, will be heard in a piano recital Saturday, June 1, at 8:30 p.m. at the beautiful Monterey Peninsula Buddhist Temple at 1155 Noche Buena, Seaside.

The performance is under the auspices of the newly formed Performing Arts Committee of the City of Seaside.

Mr. Boyer, who has concertized extensively throughout the United States, South America, and Europe, will present a program of works by Mendelssohn, Chopin, Debussy, Granados, Villa-Lobos, Khatchaturian, and others. One of the most interesting features of the program will be the local premiere of a composition entitled "Triad for Piano" by Carmel composer Hascal Vaughn Stewart. Mrs. Stewart did graduate work in music at Columbia University, and studied composition privately with Gastone Usigli and Charles Bleefield. She has had a number of songs performed lately by Jeanne Smith, mezzo-soprano, the 1968 recipient of the Metropolitan National Council Award in Singing.

Tickets for the event are available at Central Box Office.

Korea Bound

Dorothy Compton left Monday with her daughter Landi who is ten, a student at Woods School, for Sandong, Korea, where she will serve in a hospital for orphans. Landi plans to teach English to the orphans, report Diane Robesky and Erica Torell, fellow students in Mrs. Alice Powell's 4th grade.

Traveling Hunters

The traveling Hunters are home again after their most recent jaunt to the British Isles. Last month the Howard Hunters were in Greece, just prior to that they were in Hawaii. As a pilot and Senior Captain for United Airlines, Mr. Hunter and his wife Katherine are given many opportunities to travel.

Carmel Music Society

Members are reminded by Carmel Music Society president Stephen Sassoon, to renew their subscriptions for the 1968-1969 season by June 1. The Box Office is at Friar Tuck Book Shop, Box 1144, telephone 624-7500. The next season will include the Oakland Chamber Orchestra, "Curlew River", the new opera by Benjamin Britten, Young Uck Kim, the young Korean violinist, pianist Raymond Lewenthal, and Rosalind Elias, Metropolitan mezzo-soprano.

Miss Angie Machado who has contributed so much to the musical life of Carmel and the Peninsula, retired last week as head of the music department at Monterey Peninsula College. See story on page A.

Junipero Serra Wins Volleyball Tourney

Spirited Cougars of Junipero Serra in Carmel took the first place trophy Saturday, May 18, in the annual volleyball tournament held in the Hartnell College gym in Salinas. Six schools, St. Angela's, Madonna, Santa Catalina, Sacred Heart, San Carlos and St. Mary's provided stiff competition for the Carmel team.

Players included: Agnes Berta, Chris Lucido, Terri Helm, Lisse Tourangeau, Anne d' Arienas, Gerri Artellan, Sheila Haddad, and Ronnie Beardsley.

Having won five games out of six, the Cougars received their trophy for outstanding play and sportsmanship. A similar trophy was won by the Cougars the year before in a tournament at Santa Catalina.

Not to be forgotten were the cheerleaders of Junipero Serra who placed second in cheering competition. The five cheerleaders who attended this event were: Sheila Haddad, Chris Lucido, Terri Helm, Lisse Tourangeau, and Mary Moore.

Lions Club Aids Guide Dog Fund

According to an announcement by Larry Sullivan, its President, the Carmel Lions Club has made a contribution of $500.00 to the long range capital fund drive of Guide Dogs For The Blind at San Rafael. On numerous occasions in the past the Lions have contributed to the guide dog school, which has been the principal institution of its kind serving the western United States.

The school has been in operation for twenty-five years, and currently furnishes guide dogs to about one hundred blind persons each year. Although an annual fund raising event has been conducted for some years on the Monterey Peninsula to support current operations of the school, the Lions Club contribution will go to the building program. Extensive new kennels have just been completed, while gradual replacement of out-dated student housing facilities as well as other needed buildings is contemplated as funds become available.

Several Peninsula residents have received guide dogs through the school. One of them, Eben Whittlesey, a member of the Carmel Lions Club just returned the Carmel from training with his fourth guide dog.

Money donated by the Lions Club will have been earned at one or more of the various fundraising events conducted by the club, which include operation of food concessions at the Monterey County Fair and at the Laguna Seca races. Lion Whittlesey reports that he is working hard getting acquainted with his new guide, a handsome German Shepherd named Bonny.

Hon. George W. Ball

The Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies is pleased to announce that the Honorable George W. Ball, just appointed by President Johnson as U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, is a member of the distinguished Board of Trustees of the Institute.

P.G. Science Camp June 24 to July 19

Carmel High School students are eligible for the teen-age science camp co-sponsored by the Pacific Grove Schools and Recreation Department this summer. The camp will operate during the first four weeks of the summer school program, June 24 to July 19. High School and graduating 8th grade students will receive 5 units of Science credit. Junior High students will receive summer school credit.

Boy and girl campers must be enrolled for the full four week period. Enrollment is limited to 40 students. Campers leave the Community Center Monday mornings at 9, and return Friday in the late afternoon, spending the week-ends at home.

The course of study will be an intense examination of the natural surroundings of the Santa Lucia mountains. This includes study of flora, fauna, ecology, geology, and geography; conservation practices; rough camp living and safety; water safety, group working and living experiences.

The camp is located on Sweetwater Creek, two miles off the Palo Colorado Road. It is at an elevation of 2000 feet in rough mountain terrain. Kitchen, swimming pool, showers and toilets are standard. Campers sleep outdoors on the ground under the oak trees in sleeping bags.

The camp will have a full-time staff of seven, headed up by Duke and Ruth Thayer, who have directed and supervised school and city camping programs for 14 years.

Campers may be registered on a first-come basis at the Pacific Grove Recreation Department, 515 Junipero. The cost will be $120 for the full four week camp period. Twenty have already signed up.

For further information, call Duke Thayer, Dean of Students, Pacific Grove High School (373-4951) or the Pacific Grove Recreation Department.

We may live without poetry, music and art;
We may live without conscience and live without heart;
We may live without friends; we may live without books;
But civilized man can not live without cooks. . .
He may live without books,
what is knowledge but grieving?
He may live without hope, what is hope but deceiving?
He may live without love, what is passion but pining?
But where is the man that can live without dining?

CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA

CARMEL is a breath of fresh air, an awareness of beauty. The materialist says of Carmel, "corny," nothin' to do. The idealist glimpses something of reality and a meaning of life in this area of great beauty.

Located, as Carmel is, almost on the west edge of the west coast, it benefits from clean Pacific air, filtered and conditioned by thousands of miles of ocean. It is snuggled into an intimate bay where it receives protection from northerly winds and is guarded by nearby Point Lobos and the Santa Lucia Mountains.

Some Carmel Business Association facts are included in the following:

BRIEF HISTORY

CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA is a residential community and art center located on the Pacific shore of Monterey County, California, 130 miles south of San Francisco and 350 miles north of Los Angeles.

Carmel is an informal, individualist town with a citizenry that constantly strives to preserve the natural beauty of ocean, hills and woods. Homes nestle around and under trees on the slopes that rise from the world-famous white sands of Carmel Beach. Local ordinances tightly restrict business zones (i.e., none on the Beach front), outlaw billboard and neon advertising, and control indiscriminate tree cutting.

Carmel has no cemetery, no mail delivery, no street addresses (mail is picked up at the local post office), and except for the business district, conventional sidewalks and street lights are missing.

The village is culturally active in music, art and little theatre groups, and features locally-made art objects in many gift shops.

CARMEL was named for the Carmelite Friars who came to the area with Viscaino in 1602. Carmel's first building, the Mission San Carlos de Borromeo (second of the great Franciscan Missions in California) was established by Father Junipero Serra in 1770.

In the early 1900's, the village of Carmel began around a group of young artists and writers. Five hundred residents living in an area of 7/8 of one square mile incorporated Carmel-by-the-Sea in 1916 and established a Mayor and City Council government.

Perry House Gallery Is Under New Management

Mary Agnes Lansdowne of Carmel, nationally known artist whose sensitive oil paintings of floral subjects and seascapes have been shown at the Perry House Gallery of Fine Arts since it opened a year ago, is to be the new director of the gallery on June first.

Mary Agnes is a Carmelite of long standing, having lived here as a girl. She and her husband, Capt. F. MacKinnon Lansdowne (Navy Ret.) have lived in the Carmel area for some time. Capt. Lansdowne has been a consultant with Kaiser Engineers for the past three years. They are building a home in Carmel Valley where they have owned property for 25 years.

She has been an active member of the Carmel Art Association for several years and also exhibits at the Pebble Beach Gallery, Beeches Gallery, White Oaks Gallery and in special showings in San Francisco.

Eloise Chamberlain Kozak will serve as the new Gallery Curator. Mrs. Kozak and her husband, Andrew Kozak, a free lance creative designer, have a lovely home and garden on Monte Verde where they have lived since last October when they moved down from San Francisco.

A charming, vivacious person, Mrs. Kozak studied art at Ward Belmont School for Girls in Tennessee and has visited all the major art museums in Europe.

Perry House, which was handsomely restored by Maggie Downer of Carmel, is located just above California's First Theatre in Monterey, on the corner of Scott and Van Buren Streets.

Watson Show At Zantman's

Zantman Art Galleries on 6th at San Carlos is featuring the paintings of Robert Watson in a One-Man-Show running through June 15.

The same lonely man walks through the ruins and vast spaces of these semi-surrealistic impressions, his red turban lending the only relief in the misty blue gray of ancient walls, arches and towers. Mr. Watson creates a dream-like quality in his highly imaginative, well executed canvases.

Running concurrently is a showing of oils by French artist Charles Levier. Mr. Levier's warm Mediterranean views are sharply delineated in fresh sparkling colors. These two shows make an interesting foil for each other.

REPORTS FROM RLS

By Chandler Meloy

Cum Laude Society New Members

In the traditional year-end ceremony, the Robert Louis Stevenson chapter of the Cum Laude Society, (national honors society) honored new members this past weekend in the Erdman Memorial Chapel.

Boys chosen for the honor must come from the top 20 percent of their senior class or from the top 10 percent of the Junior Class. Founding member on campus, Headmaster Robert U. Ricklefs, gave the opening remarks and welcome. Frank Keith, assistant headmaster, organized the program and introduced the speaker who was Larry Kuechler. Kuechler, now a student at Stanford was student body President at R.L.S. last year.

Acting as host members were four boys from this years senior class: Robert Howard, Tim Talbot, William Condrat and John Cann. New senior members were Mike Bohman, Jackson Booth, Dan Daly, Craig Graffin, Geoff Haynes, Steve Russell and Claude Wynn. New junior members, who will carry on the tradition until next year are West Clark, Raymond Cleary, Eric Haas and Art Lara.

Eric Haas New President

The students have elected Eric Haas as the new President of the student body to replace Claude Wynn, retiring. Claude has decided to accept graduation and leave the political honors to Junior Haas. Eric defeated Tom Gardner in a close and spirited election campaign that saw many innovations including planes dropping leaflets and radio announcements.

General LeMay Gives Talk

General Curtis LeMay, featured speaker at the Father and Son banquet this past Saturday gave a most inspirational talk concentrating his remarks on the world situation in relation to Viet Nam. The general has written a book on the subject of American involvement in world affairs, and a copy of this is available to any father writing the school and asking for one.

Reviews for Young Readers

By Allene Fremier

Now that baseball season is upon us, some of our fans and players might enjoy reading THE BAT BOY, by Dominick Ardovino. This is Dominick's own story about being a bat boy for the New York Mets. He was with the Mets for three years and loved it. He tells his story well and his enthusiasm for baseball, and for the Mets in particular, comes across to the reader — even to me and I'm a Giant fan.

TAKE A BALLOON, by A. Harris Stone was written to "help you answer . . . questions," according to the author. "It also has been written to help you to learn to work as a scientist." It does this mainly by questioning what happens when you take a balloon and perform the suggested experiments. The questions direct the scientist to observe what happens. One example of the home-type experiments is: "What effect does a charged balloon have on small pieces of puffed cereal? Does the effect change when the balloon is rubbed more?" It sounds like a way to learn and have fun at the same time. There is a glossary of terms used in the book, as some of the words may not be familiar.

Now for some picture books. DID YOU SEE WHAT I SAID? will be fun for children and for parents. Shan Ellentuck has taken favorite similes seriously by asking "Did you see what I said?" "Soon the street was full of frightened people, running every which way. Everybody was in a terrible stew." Turn the page and you see all the people in a huge stew pot. Or, ". . . every last one of them was scared stiff. Did you SEE what I said?" Turn the page and there is everyone standing stiff and straight. At the end, Miss Parker says I'm so ashamed, . . . I wish I could sink right into the ground! . . . AND SHE DID!"

Liesel Skorpen's IF I HAD A LION is a charming dream-story of a little girl thinking how it would be to have a lion. "A lion would be such a lot of help around the house. . . . And when my mother made lump oatmeal for breakfast, my lion would help me eat it. . . . I would tell my lion everything I know. . . . If ever I felt lonely or sad, my lion would sit with me. . . . But we wouldn't be lonely very often. If I had a lion." The pictures are by Ursula Landshoff and add greatly to the simple story.

Tabitha Tabbittail was having trouble with everything when THE CLEAN SWEEP, by Racey Helps begins. Her silver spoon, her best brooch and later a bracelet are missing. Then the fox comes and offers to clean her chimney and cleans out her larder instead, besides getting the key to the chicken house. But Mr. Podberry, the sheep dog, tricks the fox, and the real chimney sweep finds the lost items and everyone but the fox is happy. Foxes never seem to do very well, but after all, there has to be a villain.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE RADIO PROGRAM

The second part in a two part series titled " 'Make you a new heart' " will be heard Sunday on the Christian Science radio series "The Bible Speaks to You" over station KGO at 7:30, KRML at 7:45 and KDON at 8:45 A.M. This program presents a discussion of the serious questions raised by the new heart transplant operations concerning the body as a machine and the relationship of thought and body.

Masters Concert

Beginning Saturday, June 1, the call letters of KMBY-FM will be changed to KWAV. It will in no way affect the scheduling of the Masters Concert. The following major works will be featured during the week of May 30 over KWAV, 96.9 m.c. at 8 p.m.:

Thursday, May 30, 8 p.m.— Schubert, Quintet in A Major (Trout); Mozart, Symphony No. 38 (Prague).

Friday, May 31, 8 p.m. — Brahms, Piano Concerto No. 1; Haydn, Symphony No. 88.

Monday, June 3, 8 p.m. — Mozart, Symphony No. 39; Saint-Saens, Piano Concerto No. 4.

Tuesday, June 4, 8 p.m. — Mahler, Symphony No. 4; Stravinsky, Pulcinella.

Wednesday, June 5, 8 p.m. — Mozart, Symphony No. 36 (Linz); Bach, Concerto for 3 Pianos.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SUNDAY SERMON

"They that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought. For I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee."

These verses from Isaiah are the Golden Text of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday. "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" is the title of the Lesson.

Passages from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include these lines, "At all times and under all circumstances, overcome evil with good. Know thyself, and God will supply the wisdom and the occasion for a victory over evil."

An ad in the Pine Cone has 4 times the reader impact of the daily newspaper.

CHANGE YOUR OUTLOOK!

TAKE A WINDOW SEAT ON THE SEA! Two fabulous homes sitting right on the ocean's edge south of Carmel five miles and 12 miles. Priced at $97,500 and $108,000. Never a dull moment again in your life!

OR LOOK AT THE SEA FROM AFAR and enjoy a panoramic view of the great Santa Lucias and the Carmel Valley as well. Just listed one of Carmel's most charming homes all hidden away on a cul-de-sac, very private, but with views very panoramic. Sunny step-down living room, 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, and Charm, Charm, Charm. And only $49,000. Just above the Mission, with the same kind of view only more to the South and West, and first time on the market since it was built 18 years ago. This means it could use some decorating up-dating, but you won't match the superb location, rose garden, setting, at anything like this $45,000 price. And one in that hard-to-find-a-vacant-house area, Rancho Rio Vista, a very special custom planned home with all kinds of every view, for $59,500.

OR HAVE A REAL FAIRY-TALE VIEW of ocean and forest from way up on top of the world in the Carmel Highlands area. The home is exquisite, but it's only for those who treasure real privacy. Well worth its $80,000 price.

OR LOOK DOWN ON MONTEREY BAY from a wooded five-plus-acre parcel in that very special Jack's Peak area. This means very close to Carmel, Pebble Beach, Monterey, but the feeling of being a thousand miles from everywhere. Lovely home included at $65,000.

GET AWAY FROM IT ALL — from everything, that is, except nature. How about a post adobe on top of the saddle between Carmel Valley and the Salinas Valley, at the end of a paved road on the Carmel side. It's real seclusion, and it's real view . . . probably you never even imagined one quite like it.

CHANGE YOUR PACE!

SLOW DOWN. Feed the animals and birds in the green belt across the street. Show your kids how things grow. Take your carts out of the garage and wheel around a few blocks to the club. In the evening, enjoy your quiet living room while the kids watch TV in the family room. New on the market and only $64,500.

WALK TO TOWN AND THE BEACH in Carmel. Enjoy a traditional home near La Playa hotel. Sun in your private patio or go to the beach just down the hill. Priced just $57,500.

LIVE WITH THE FOREST PRIMEVAL behind you and a year-round stream in your front yard in the beautiful Palo Colorado Canyon. One of the original log houses. Back to nature at $27,500.

CHANGE YOUR BUDGET!

SPEND MORE ON TRAVEL, LESS ON A HOME. But don't compromise on quality. Hard? Not in Carmel where you've two well built, extremely charming, delightfully landscaped homes to choose from at less than $40,000. One even has a complete artist's studio and is priced at just $32,500. See them both and see if they aren't just as adequate for your new way of life as your great big house. (P.S. — we also have a beautifully built little one-bedroom, shake-roof home for $25,950).

ADD INCOME AND A VACATION HOME by acquiring this choice Carmel property just a little way off Ocean Avenue. 3 charming little homes. Live in one and rent the others, or build your retirement home on part of the property, or keep one for weekends and enjoy income and the charming tax advantages which go with income property. This one at $82,500.

CHANGE YOUR WORLD

to a private retirement paradise. If you're still in love with each other, birds, gardens, swimming and privacy, here's wonderful indoor-outdoor living in a glamorous home in a secluded setting on a quiet cul-de-sac on the edge of Carmel. A very special home, first time offered since it was lovingly built a few years ago of the finest materials, meticulous planning. New swimming pool has all the works including an automatic pool-sweep. For $75,000 you can buy a way of life you've always dreamed about but ddin't know existed.
